

Summary

Fine motility development among pre-school age children

Necessity of a more qualified special small motility level development among pre-school age children is being described by the author. Basis of author's approach towards this problem, including polyphonic abilities development stage, are being shortly stated.

Keywords: pre-schooler, child's development, fine motility, gross motility, attention distribution, polyphonic abilities, application teaching of how to play a musical instrument.

Rogova Svetlana Alekseevna – Candidate of Psychology, senior lecturer at Penza State Pedagogical University named after V.G. Belinskiy, Penza.

Competence tasks in Educational system "Shkola 2100" primary Maths course Article 2

Scientific-methodical aspects analysis of competence tasks solution in primary school is being held in the article. Two last competence tasks included in Educational system "Shkola 2100" Maths workbooks are being considered.

Keywords: competence task, Math textbooks for primary school, Educational system "Shkola 2100".

Dubova Marina Veniaminovna – Candidate of Pedagogics, senior lecturer at Primary Education Department of Mordovian State Pedagogy Institute;

Maslova Svetlana Valerjevna – Candidate of Pedagogics, senior lecturer at Primary Education Department of Mordovian State Pedagogy Institute, Saransk, Republic of Mordovia.

Junior schoolchildren's reflective skills in draft education

For draft method work in primary school not only the teacher's preparation is required, but also the scholar's. It is told about junior schoolchildren's readiness towards draft activity and this term's content from activity education standpoint is being revealed in the article. System of special tasks for educational process organization during "Draft activity" course aimed towards 2–4 forms is being considered, significance of reflective activities is being marked, as well as presentation, self-appraisal and special reflexive activity lessons.

Keywords: draft activity, forming of readiness towards draft activity, draft skills, reflective activity, junior schoolchildren.

Pakhomova Ninel Yulovna – Candidate of Pedagogics, senior lecturer, head of Education Development Information

Support Laboratory at Moscow Institute of Open Education, Moscow.

Polilingual and policultural individuality of future foreign language teacher preparation

The article is devoted to a problem of multimedia-oriented polilingual and policultural justified preparation of future foreign language teacher.

Keywords: cultural communication, multimedia, polilingual and policultural individuality, linguo-multimedia competence, informatization, preparation of future foreign language teacher, multimedia oriented environment.

Kruze Boris Aleksandrovich – Candidate of Pedagogics, associate professor at Foreign Languages Teaching Methods Department of Perm State Pedagogical University, Perm.

Retention of junior schoolchildren to family values

Theoretical material revealing the task of getting schoolchildren acquainted to values of culture is being revealed in the article. Practical material, where on specified examples the opportunities of junior schoolchildren acquaintance to family values reflected upon national Mordovian women's clothing, is being offered.

Keywords: junior schoolchildren, national culture, family values, getting acquainted to family values, national clothing.

Dmitrieva Svetlana Yurievna – Head of Ethnocultural Education Laboratory at State Educational Facility of Additional Professional Education (Increase of Qualification) of "Mordovia Republican Education Institute" Specialists, Saransk, Republic of Mordovia.

Spirituality in modern school

One of second generation standards priority society and state tasks being the upbringing of moral, responsible, enterprising and competent citizen, in other words – spiritual-moral personality. Term of spirituality is being revealed in the article, its components outlined, as well as several spirituality cultivation in junior schoolchildren methods being offered.

Keywords: spirituality, education, upbringing, spirituality cultivation methods, junior schoolchild.

Astakhov Sergei Vladimirovich – primary school teacher at school № 258, "Best teacher" National Project winner, methodist, Moscow.